Driving Directions

From North of San Francisco (Golden Gate Bridge)

Take Highway 101 South, crossing the Golden Gate Bridge and making a slight left onto Lombard Street. After almost a mile, turn right onto Gough Street and stay on Gough for 1.7 miles. Turn left on Fell Street. From Fell, take a slight right on 10th Street. 10th Street becomes Potrero as you cross Division Street, and ZSFG will be on your left between 21st and 23rd Streets. Turn left onto 24th Street. Just past Utah Street, the entrance to the parking structure will be on your left.

From East of San Francisco (Bay Bridge)

Take Highway 80 East, crossing the Bay Bridge. Take the 101 South/San Jose/Airport exit and continue south on 101 to the Cesar Chavez/Potrero Street off-ramp. Stay to the right as you exit, and that lane will drop onto Potrero. Turn right onto 24th Street. Just past Utah Street, the entrance to the parking structure will be on your left.

From South of San Francisco (SFO)

Take 101 North (or 280 North to 101 North) to the Cesar Chavez/Potrero Street exit. The exit starts as two lanes, then becomes three lanes. Stay in the right-most lane and that will drop onto Potrero Avenue going north. 995 Potrero is on your right immediately after 22nd Street. Turn right onto 24th Street. Just past Utah Street, the entrance to the parking structure will be on your left.

Parking Garage

Street parking around the hospital is limited. Everything in a three-block radius is one-hour only, so we highly recommend parking in the hospital garage at 2550 24th St, San Francisco, CA 94110. Coming from the south or east, you'll take a right on 24th. From the north, turn left on 24th. The garage entrance is one block up on your left, just after Utah Street.

Unlimited, permit-free parking is available around Florida Street and 20th Street, and the streets northwest of Florida and 20th. They are difficult to find, however.
